

Construction Law Associate – Cozen O'Connor, Washington DC

Description

Cozen O'Connor's Washington, D.C. office seeks a construction law associate with a minimum of three years of experience. The ideal candidate will have experience counseling and representing project owners and developers, contractors, and design professionals in all stages of construction projects, including contract formation/negotiations, project management, pre-suit investigation and development of potential claims, and litigation of claims in state and federal trial and appellate courts across the country. Candidates must have excellent academic credentials and demonstrate strong analytical and communication skills. DC bar license required.

With more than 40 attorneys practicing in 10 offices throughout the United States, Cozen O'Connor's Construction Group has the depth and geographical reach to handle our clients' most complex problems in the United States and abroad. The Construction Group includes attorneys who are ranked nationally by leading peer-reviewed publications, including Chambers USA, U.S. News/Best Lawyers, and The Legal 500. In 2020 the group was also recognized as Law360 Construction Group of the Year.

Qualified applicants should submit a cover letter, resume, law school transcript and writing sample through the careers page of our website at <https://www.cozen.com/careers>. We are not accepting candidate submissions from search firms.

Cozen O'Connor is an Equal Opportunity Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to age, race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, marital status, affectional or sexual orientation or sex or any other unlawful factor.
