

Junior Government Contracts Associate – Reed Smith

Description

The Global Regulatory Enforcement Group of Reed Smith LLP is currently seeking a junior government contracts associate for our Washington, D.C. or Tysons office. Candidates should have 2-3 years experience at either a large or mid-size national firm, working primarily in the government contracts group, or alternatively working at a government contracts boutique firm. Experience must include: bid protests, familiarity with the Federal Acquisition Regulations (FAR) and its supplements, and experience counseling clients on FAR applicability and requirements. Preferred experience: other government contracts litigation and investigations, such as: claims, whistle-blower claims, prime-subcontractor disputes, negotiating agreements such as: government contract terms, subcontracts, teaming agreements, joint venture agreements, and due diligence on M&A transactions involving government contracts.

For more information or to apply, click here.

Employer

Reed Smith

Job Location

Washington, DC

Date posted

March 16, 2023